Billy Abrazo Poem

The words and phrases that you hear me SAY
were thoughts and recollections meditated on SUNDAY!

Billy, Billy what a joy it has BEEN to teach you from beginning to END!

You're a loving child who has a knack for giving hugs! You behaved your best when reading to self on the ABC rug!

You are sweet, gentle, and amazingly kind. Please take these traits with you and never linger them behind.

As we rapped our ways in the hallway with cheer, we reviewed some vocab, which I believe the most popular was persevere!"

It's time to go say goodbye for now! Billy, your parents should be oh so proud!

For you can enlighten any teacher's day with your ball of energy and creative play!

If there was a title that I could give to you, it would be the math wizard because you can add, subtract, and multiply too!

Billy Abrazo Poem

But for now, let me end this letter with just this thought!
Continue to learn, grow, and not be soft...

In giving hugs to your friends, loved ones and past teachers, too! Because there were times, as an IA, that I doubted I made an impact on any child, including you!

But you proved me wrong with your out-of-nowhere hugs and warm embrace while walking through the hallways at a rapid pace!

Billy, be who you are and do not get into trouble! Continue to grow in knowledge and love and just be humble!

For I know that love, peace, and joy are the only words I hear when Billy asks, "Mr. Rice, Mr. Rice, can you please come near?"
